 Plus the Thoughts That Shaped the Hits

2022 Rank / Artist / Title /Year / Top 77 History
“...In Their Own Words...”

* Indicates a former #1 song on the Billboard charts or on WABC Radio in New York

1. *Beatles / Hey Jude/1968/25 times, Top 77 Peak #1 (24 weeks as the #1 voted song!)

Paul McCartney: “Ringo walked out to go to the toilet and I hadn't noticed. I still thought he was in his drum booth. I started what was the actual take — and 'Hey Jude' goes on for hours before the drums come in — and while I was doing it I suddenly felt Ringo tiptoeing past my back rather quickly, trying to get to his drums. And just as he got to his drums, boom boom boom, his timing was absolutely impeccable.”

2. Beach Boys / God Only Knows /1966/ 22 times, Peak #2

Brian Wilson: "Tony Asher and I tried to write something very spiritually. It's got a melody similar to the song. 'The Sound Of Music'...'I hear the sound of music...' versus 'I may not always love you...' It was similar to it. Tony came up with the title 'God Only Knows.' I was scared they'd ban playing it on the radio because of the title but they didn't."

3 *Four Seasons / Rag Doll/1964/ 24 times, Top 77 Peak #1

Bob Gaudio, writer and group member: "The overtones of that recording chamber were unbelievable, we were concerned that it would be a bit too extreme, sound-wise, especially if we also used it for the vocals. But we were stuck with that and the 4-track. And the damn echo was slapping everything around. But the media of the time – like AM radio – simply couldn't reproduce it, so you didn't hear it over the radio. So it was rushed to mastering and was on the radio within 10 days of the session."

4. *Rolling Stones / (I Can't Get No) Satisfaction/1965/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #2

Keith Richards: "The record sounded like a dub to me, I couldn't see getting excited about. No, I didn't want it out, I said. I wanted to cut it again. So we did."

5. Richard Harris / MacArthur Park/1968/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #3

Writer Jimmy Webb: "'Let's make a record, Jimmy Webb.' Richard Harris only called me 'Jimmy Webb,' never just Jimmy. Over the course of two days, we tore through 30 or 40 of my songs as we drank pitchers of Pimm's Cup. 'MacArthur Park' was at the bottom of my pile. By the time I played it, we had moved on to straight brandy, but Richard slapped the piano and said, 'Oh Jimmy Webb. I love that! I'll make a hit out of that, I will.'"

6. *Simon & Garfunkel / Bridge Over Troubled Water/1970/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #4

Art Garfunkel: "There was never supposed to be a third verse. It was in the studio that we said there should be a third verse, and Paul wrote it. And then came the fun of adding the pieces....You'll love this one: We took our tape, we sped it up twice as fast so the whole 'Bridge over Troubled Water' was running at twice the speed. We asked Hal Blaine to play his drums on every other bar...his nice, fattest, mallet sound on his skins. And then we slowed the record back down to proper speed."

7. *Don McLean / American Pie/1972/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #3

Don McLean: "I remember people always telling me, 'Oh, the Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost. Well, that's so-and-so, and so-and-so, and so-and-so.' Well, I say, 'No. It's the Holy Trinity. It's God. It is what I say it is. It's the Holy Trinity, the Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost, the three gods in one. That's the Holy Trinity. And exactly what I meant:'"

8. *Beach Boys / Good Vibrations/1966/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #4

Tony Asher, lyricist: "Brian (Wilson) wanted to call the song 'Good Vibes,' and I remember he was saying something like, you know, 'Good, good vibes, I get good vibes,' or something like that. And I kept saying to him, 'You know, it really ought to be vibrations.'"

9. *Doors / Light My Fire/1967/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak ##2

Ray Manzarek, Doors keyboard player: "Paul Rothchild, brilliant, genius producer. said, 'I'm going to do some edits. I'm going to cut 'Light My Fire' down from seven minutes to 2:45, 2:50. And I thought, I'm going to kill this guy. Paul said, hold it...just think. You've never heard the song. You're 17 years old. You're in Poughkeepsie...Des Moines...Missoula. You've never heard of The Doors. All you know is a two minute and 45 second song is going to come on the radio. It's called 'Light My Fire'. And we all looked at each other and I said, you know what, man? You're right. It works."

10. Led Zeppelin / Stairway to Heaven (From "Led Zeppelin IV") /1972/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #2
Jimmy Page: "To me, I thought 'Stairway' crystalized the essence of the band. It...showed the band at its best... as a band, as a unit. It had everything there. We were careful never to release it as a single. It was a milestone for us. Every musician wants to do something of lasting quality, something which will hold up for a long time, and I guess we did it with 'Stairway.'"

11. Five Satins / In the Still of the Night/1956/ 25 times, Top 77 Peak #2
Fred Parris, lead vocalist and writer: "I never expected it to have so much of an impact that people would embrace the song 50 years later. I had no idea it was going to be that successful...I didn't know if they were going to listen to it 15 minutes later, let alone 50 years."

12. Glen Campbell / Wichita Lineman/1968/ 13 times, Top 77 Peak #12
Glen Campbell to writer Jimmy Webb: "Well, my producer, Al DeLory, and I are over here at Capitol cutting a new album and we're short on material. We need something really strong. Do you think you could write us another 'By the Time I Get to Phoenix?'"

13. Orpheus / Can't Find the Time/1969/ 11 times, Top 77 Peak #13
Bruce Arnold, Band Member and writer: "I was nineteen when I wrote that. I think I spent maybe twenty-five minutes cleaning up the lyrics and then the song was done."

14. *Ronettes / Be My Baby/1963/ 20 times, Top 77 Peak #12
Hal Blaine, drummer: "That famous drum intro was an accident. I was supposed to play the snare on the second beat as well as the fourth, but I dropped a stick. Being the faker I was in those days, I left the mistake in and it became: "Bum-ba-bum-BOOM!" If you listen to me in Frank Sinatra's 'Strangers in the Night I'm playing the 'Be My Baby' beat, just very softly."

15. *Temptations / My Girl/1965/ 24 times, Top 77 Peak #3
Smokey Robinson, the song's writer: "People asked me many times: 'Why didn't you keep "My Girl" for yourself?'...Because if it hadn't been for David Ruffin and Temptations, I probably would have never ever written 'My Girl.' They inspired that. I thought it was a great subject for him to sing about."

16. *Looking Glass / Brandy (You're a Fine Girl)/1972/ 18 times, Top 77 Peak #16
Elliot Lurie, singer and writer: "Brandy is a made-up individual. The name was derived from a high school girlfriend I had whose name was Randy with an "R." Usually when I write I strum some guitar and kind of sing-along with the first things that come to mind. Her name came up. I thought Randy was an unusual name for a girl, the song was about a barmaid, so I changed it to Brandy."

17. *Association / Cherish/1966/ 21 times, Top 77 Peak #14
Terry Kirkman, writer and vocalist: "What I heard in my head when writing the song was more like The Righteous Brothers' super hit "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'. Slow, heavy, sad, poignant and heartbroken -- full of heart-wrenching soul. The song was so long that not only did we speed up the tempo...we sped up the actual recording after we recorded it as well. And when that still wasn't quite fast enough, our producers then lied about the play time on the label by about 20 full seconds."

18. *Diana Ross / Ain't No Mountain High Enough/1970/ 22 times, Top 77 Peak #2

Valerie Simpson, writer: "When Diana left the Supremes in the fall of '69, (Motown founder) Berry Gordy asked Nick (Ashford) and me to produce her first album. Nick and I wanted one of our songs to run longer than the usual three minutes. Nick suggested we have Diana narrate an extended verse (on 'Ain't No Mountain...') so he wrote new lyrics. I created an introduction that led into a choir that set up Diana's spoken voice."

19. *Turtles / Happy Together/1967 8 times, Top 77 Peak #19

Mark Volman, vocalist: "It (the demo) only included a singer and a guitar, but we could hear the melody and chorus. We were very careful because we had had those records that had been done poorly and we needed something to be great. It could have easily been our last recording. After all, how many failures were we going to be given by a small, independent record label?"

20. *Beatles / Let It Be/1970/ 24 times, Top 77 Peak #4

John Lennon: "That's Paul. What can you say? Nothing to do with the Beatles. It could've been Wings. I don't know what he's thinking when he writes 'Let It Be.'"

21. *Eagles / Hotel California/1977/ 21 times, Top 77 Peak #13

Don Felder, band member: "Don Henley came up with the concept for Hotel California...when you get into the Hotel California and you have a hit, you're the new kid in town, and then once you have a great deal of success in the business, you start living life in the fast lane. Every once in a while, you start to go, 'Is this all a bunch of wasted time, all the years we've sat in bars and turned into parties?' So the concept came out of that framework."

22. *Elvis Presley / Suspicious Minds/1969/ 17 times, Top 77 #20

Producer Chips Moman: "When (Elvis' chief producer) Felton Jarvis took the tape of 'Suspicious Minds,' he added this crazy 15-second fade toward the end, like the song was ending, and brought it back by overdubbing to extend it. I have no idea why he did that, but he messed it up. It was like a scar. But none of which mattered. Soon after the song was released, Elvis was back on top of the charts."

23. *Monkees / Daydream Believer/1967/ 12 times, Top 77 Peak #23

Peter Tork: "I was on the piano and I came up with this opening lick which I thought was just sparkingly original. (But)...what really makes the song work, I think, is the chord change on 'Jean' in 'Cheer up sleepy Jean.' That's a very unexpected and sweet chord change. It really grabs your attention."

24. *Fifth Dimension / Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In /1969/ 13 times, Top 77 Peak #15

Florence LaRue: "We were not into astrology at all. We recorded it because it talked of hope and fun and harmony and it was just an uplifting song. That's why we recorded it."

25. Bruce Springsteen / Born to Run/1975/ 18 times, Top 77 Peak #7

Bruce Springsteen: "So I'd been listening to three records, Duane Eddy, the twangy guitar sound, Roy Orbison, the very unusually and unstructured songs, and, of course, Dylan. So, those are the three things that kind of found their way... into 'Born to Run' because I was never really much of a revolutionary musician."

26. *Moody Blues / Nights in White Satin/1972/ 21 times, Top 77 Peak #16

Justin Haywood, band member and writer: "The title? Another girlfriend, who was not the one that had just dumped me inspiring the emotion of the song, had given me some white satin sheets. They just happened to be in my suitcase and I was trying them out in this place that Graeme (Edge, fellow band mate) and I lived in. They were very romantic-looking, but totally impractical."

27. Chicago / Beginnings/1971/11 times, Top 77 Peak #18

Robert Lamm, writer: "I have written songs using a guitar, but I'm not (really) a guitar player. So on '25 or 6 to 4' or the opening riffs to 'Free' or 'Beginnings,'"I wrote those on guitar. I just kind of taught myself how to play."

28. Fifth Dimension / Up, Up and Away/1967/ 3 times, Top 77 Peak #28

Jimmy Webb, writer: "The hot dog stand had a hot-air balloon in an adjacent lot. As we walked toward the balloon, my friend Willie said, 'Would you like to ride in my beautiful balloon?' I wrote the song in about 40 minutes. I used a line from 'Superman' for the title and chorus line. On the radio, when I was a kid, Superman would say 'Up! Up! And Away!' just before he flew off."

29. *Four Tops / I Can't Help Myself (Sugar Pie Honey Bunch)/1965/ 17 times, Top 77 Peak #17

Lamont Dozier, co-writer: "My grandfather was a bit of a flirt, and would say, 'How you doin', sugar pie? Good morning, honey bunch.' He was one of those types of guys...flirting with his big smile. Years later, at Motown, I'm sitting at the piano. That memory comes to me. I hear him saying, 'Good morning, sugar pie. How you doin', honey bunch?' That's what started it."

30. *Mamas & the Papas / California Dreamin'/1966/ 14 times, Top 77 Peak #17

P. F. Sloan, writer and producer: "Nobody particularly liked the song, and to be honest with you, 'California Dreamin'" was maybe three or four chords. I added the 'Walk - Don't Run' Ventures guitar riffs for that 'da da da da da da.' That was all creative work inside the studio when I heard them singing on mic."

31. Bob Dylan / Like a Rolling Stone/1965 /23 times, Top 77 Peak #12

Bob Dylan: "'Rolling Stone's the best song I wrote."

32. *Beatles / I Want to Hold Your Hand/1964 / 25 times. Top 77 Peak #4

John Lennon: "We were in Jane Asher's house, downstairs...and we had, 'Oh you-u-u/ got that something...'. And Paul hits this chord, and I turn to him and say, 'That's it!' I said, 'Do that again!' In those days, we really used to absolutely write like that-- both playing into each other's noses."

33. *Beatles / She Loves You/1964 / 25 times, Top 77 Peak #4

John Lennon: "I remember it was Paul's idea-- instead of singing 'I love you' again, we'd have a third party (singing 'yeah yeah yeah'). The 'Woooo' was taken from the Isley Brothers 'Twist And Shout,' which we stuck into everything."

34. Carpenters / Superstar/1971/ 4 times, Top 77 Peak #25

Karen Carpenter: "For some reason that tune didn't hit me in the beginning, (brother) Richard looked at me like I had three heads. He said: 'Are you out of your mind?' When I heard his arrangement of it I fell over, and now it's one of my favorites too."

35. Beatles / In My Life (from "Rubber Soul")/1966/ 19 Times, Top 77 Peak #18

John Lennon: "For 'In My Life', I had a complete set of lyrics after struggling with a journalistic vision of a trip from home to downtown on a bus naming every sight. It...is a remembrance of friends and lovers of the past...my first real major piece of work. Up till then it had all been sort of glib and throwaway. Inspired by Kenneth Allsop, the British journalist, and Bob Dylan.”

36. *Bobby Darin / Mack the Knife/1959/ 22 times, Peak Top 77 #2

Ahmet Ertegun, founder of Atlantic Records: “As we were cutting “Mack the Knife” there was no doubt in anybody’s mind it would be a success. Then I realized that having done the rock thing, Bobby was now going to have a big pop hit. We were jumping up and down, and after the first take, I said, ‘You’ve got it! That’s it.’”

37. Elvis Presley / Can't Help Falling in Love/1962 8 times, Top 77 Peak #13

Headline from “Country Thang Daily” magazine: “Elvis Presley’s ‘Can’t Help Falling in Love’ Will Forever Be The Most Romantic Song in History.”

38. Raspberries / Go All the Way/1972 / 5 times, Top 77 Peak #38

Eric Carmen, lead vocalist: “The problem is most record labels are much more comfortable fitting you into a certain slot, which is why Capitol decided that the Raspberries were always going to be ‘Go All The Way’, and Arista decided that I was going to be another romantic balladeer like Barry Manilow.”

39. *Archies / Sugar Sugar/1969/ 11 times, Top 77 Peak #17

Ron Dante, voice of The Archies: “There is a rumor that this was offered to The Monkees and they turned it down. That isn’t true. I was there during the writing process. I felt it had a really good beat. I wanted my vocal to be soft like Donovan’s delivery on songs like ‘Mellow Yellow’.”

40. Gerry Rafferty / Baker Street/1978/ 5 times, Top 77 Peak#40

Raphael Ravenscroft, sax player: “I’m irritated because it’s out of tune; yeah it’s flat; by enough of a degree that it irritates me at best.”

41. *Righteous Brothers / You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'/1965/ 21 times, Top 77 Peak #22

Bill Medley, group vocalist: “There were three or four things about it that went against the grain...We weren’t sure if it was a hit. I can remember Bobby and I listening to it the first couple of times and thinking, ‘Man, what a shame. Wouldn’t it be great if this was a hit?’”

42. *Young Rascals / Groovin'/1967 / 6 times/ Top 77 Peak #42

Felix Cavaliere, lead singer: “Musicians work primarily on Friday and Saturday nights. And when you have a romantic situation, working weekends kind of interferes with everybody else’s schedule who are not musicians...So Sunday afternoon is the only time I can be with my significant other. I just felt like...I’m gonna write a song to make amends for the fact that we’re always busy on weekends. So I wrote the line “Groovin’ on a Sunday afternoon.”

43. Beatles / A Day in the Life (from "Sgt. Pepper's...)/1967/ 21 times, Top 77 Peak #14

Paul McCartney: “There are so many great memories at Abbey Road...It’s very hard to choose one, but just to pick out of the bunch, I think it was recording the orchestra on ‘A Day In The Life’. That was pretty special.”

44. Four Seasons / Dawn (Go Away)/1964/ 18 times. Top 77 Peak #23

Bob Gaudio, writer and group member: “I wrote that with Sandy Linzer in one of my ventures. Every day there’s a dawn. It wasn’t a specific girl, it goes back to the same story. It just worked, it felt good. Co-writer Sandy Linzer came up with a great lyric, and off I went again.”

45. Queen / Bohemian Rhapsody/1976 & 1992/ 14 times, Top 77 Peak #14

Brian May, Queen band mate: "What is 'Bohemian Rhapsody' about, well I don't think we'll ever know...the great thing about about a great song is that you relate it to your own personal experiences in your own life. I think it's best to leave it with a question mark in the air."

46. *Marvin Gaye / What's Going On/1971 / 8 times, Top 77 Peak #28

Marvin Gaye: "In 1969 or 1970, I began to re-evaluate my whole concept of what I wanted my music to say. I was very much affected by letters my brother was sending me from Vietnam, as well as the social situation here at home. I wanted people to take a look at what was happening in the world."

47. Dave Clark Five / Because/1964/ 22 times, Top 77 Peak#11

Dave Clark: "The best songs you write, they don't take long. The quickest song I ever wrote was "Because." It was also done in under an hour."

48. *Beatles / Yesterday/1965/ 19 times, Top 77 Peak #24

Paul McCartney: "'I brought the song into the studio for the first time and played it on the guitar...Ringo said, 'I can't really put any drums on' – And John and George said, 'There's no point in having another guitar.' So George Martin suggested, 'Why don't you just try it by yourself and see how it works?'"

49. Beach Boys / Don't Worry Baby/1964/ 8 times, Top 77 Peak #10

Brian Wilson: "I wrote that with Roger Christian and it took me two days to write it. It was a very simple and beautiful song. Some say it's about a car and others say it's about a girl, who's right? It's both. It's about a car and a woman. The drums at the beginning are the same rhythm as 'Be My Baby'."

50. *Beatles / A Hard Day's Night/1964/ 11 times, Top 77 Peak #31

George Martin, producer: "We knew it would open both the film and the soundtrack LP, so we wanted a particularly strong and effective beginning. The strident guitar chord was the perfect launch."

51. *Del Shannon / Runaway/1961/ 17 times, Top 77 Peak ##17

Keyboardist Max Crook. "Del was tired of every song sounding like 'Blue Moon' and every chord progression being the same. When I was riffing one Friday night in October, 1960 at the Hi-Lo Club, Del jumped in, got the band to follow along, and for about 20 minutes they just rocked out to a two chord jam session in front of the crowd. This was the conception of the idea that would, the very next day on Del Shannon's lunch break, become 'Runaway'."

52. Jay & the Americans / Cara, Mia/1965/ 8 times, Top 77 Peak #31

Jay Black, lead vocalist: "Frankie Valli and Frank Sinatra warned me that I was endangering my voice by stretching it to its limits. Sinatra said, 'So you're the 'Cara, Mia' guy?...You better lower your key or you're going to lose your voice.' He was right. In 2017 I apologized to fans at the Mohegan Sun. I just told them 'I'm not hitting any notes, I can't sing.'"

53. *Carole King / It's Too Late/1971/ 8 times, Top 77 Peak #11

Toni Stern, co-writer: "'I wrote 'It's Too Late' in 20 minutes,...I would often present lyrics on a notepad to Carole to compose. She would take that pad, put it on the piano stand, and within an hour, hour and a half at the most, she would have the melody."

54. Procol Harum / A Whiter Shade of Pale/1967/ 1 time, Top 77 Peak #54

Gary Brooker of the band: "People sometimes go, 'I don't know what it's about' but something like that doesn't stay around so long without the words getting through to somebody. If it was only the music it wouldn't have been so powerfully accepted. It creates a picture and a mood in people and it is basically a love story, isn't it?"

55. Cyrkle / Red Rubber Ball/1966/ 3 times, Top 77 Peak #55

Don Dannemann, Cyrkle vocalist: "Our manager Brian Epstein said, 'Don, this is your new name, The Cyrkle. Notice the funny spelling...It was John (Lennon) who came up with The Cyrkle with the funny spelling. 'So, I now had in my hand Brian Epstein's business card with John Lennon's writing on the back. And I, master of keeping stuff that I am not...that card was probably in the trash the next day and I can't imagine what that would be worth today if I still had the card."

56. *Crystals / He's a Rebel/1962/ 17 times, Top 77 Peak #18

La La Brooks, lead singer: "When 'He's a Rebel' first came out, we told (DJ) Murray the K the truth, because why would we lie? He loved us. He was friendly with us. He was cool. He was questioning it. Murray the K said on the radio, 'Ladies and gentlemen, the Crystals didn't do 'He's a Rebel.' This girl named Darlene (Love) did it.' So it was all out, and we didn't care, because I could sing it well. But you can't keep a lie."

57. Beatles / Something/1969/ 10 times, Top 77 Peak #20

"I could never think of words for it... There was a James Taylor song called 'Something In The Way She Moves', which is the first line of that. And so then I thought of trying to change the words, but they were the words that came when I first wrote it. So in the end I just left it as that and just called it 'Something.'"

58. Bobby Darin / Beyond the Sea/1960/ 16 times, Top 77 Peak #4

Producer Nick Venet: "Darin would go up to Pfeiffer Beach all the time and Big Sur....He would whistle 'Beyond The Sea' on the beach and I'd walk, oh, a quarter of a mile behind him because he'd want me to see how the sound sounded when the wind brought it back. He was...planning on recording a new version of 'Beyond The Sea' at Pfeiffer Beach."

59. Flamingos / I Only Have Eyes for You/1959/ 15 times, Top 77 Peak #17

Terry "Buzzy" Johnson, first tenor: "It was about 12 or one in the morning, and I was so tired that I fell asleep, and in my dream I heard 'I Only Have Eyes For You' just the way it came out on our record. I heard the 'doo-bop sh-bop' [backing vocals], I heard the way the harmony would sound. As soon as I woke up, I called the guys... They laughed at me: 'What's 'doo-bop sh-bop, goo-bop sh-bop, boo-bop sh-bop, loo-bop sh-bop, shoo-bop sh-bop'?' You see, although in my dream it was 'doo-bop sh-bop', I had everybody doing a different thing, changing things around to make sure no one could really pick out what we were saying."

60. *Beatles / Long and Winding Road/1970/ 6 times, Top 77 Peak #42

Producer George Martin: "I produced the original, and what you should do is have a credit saying 'Produced by George Martin, over-produced by Phil Spector'"

61. Skyliners / Since I Don't Have You/1959/ 19 times, Top 77 Peak #19

Jimmy Beaumont, lead singer: "That song was recorded in December of 1958. It was my idea to incorporate strings into that song, because I heard the Platters do that... Jackie Wilson was one of my heroes for sure. One time, I go to his dressing room Jackie is sitting there with one of those old turntables. He dropped the needle on our record, 'No. No. No. I thought you were a member' — meaning, a member of the black race!"

62. Badfinger / Day After Day/1972/ 5 times, Top 77 Peak #18

Joey Molland, the only surviving member of the band: "George Harrison was a really nice, modest guy and a great artist...He brought his guitar down, plugged it in and played with us (on "Day After Day") as if he joined the band for a while."

63. *Tommy James & the Shondells / Crystal Blue Persuasion/1969/ 16 times, Top 77 Peak #27

Tommy James: "A kid ran up to me with a poem...and the title of this poem was 'Crystal Persuasion.' I just thought that was a fascinating title. We didn't really use the poem, just the title. To make the rhyming scheme work, I needed one more syllable, and 'blue' sounded like the right word and it became 'Crystal Blue Persuasion.'"

64. Earth Wind & Fire / September/1979/ 1 time, Top 77 Peak #64

Verdine White of the group: "A few of years ago we re-recorded "September"...with Justin Timberlake and Anna Kendrick. Because of it, a lot of younger kids are listening to our music. I thought that was really great."

65. Swingin' Medallions / Double Shot (of My Baby's Love)/1966/ 2 times, Top 77 Peak #65

John McElrath, Lead Singer: "They (the record company) didn't like...'Woke up this morning, my head hurt so bad/ The worst hangover that I ever had,' and made us change it to, 'Worst morning after that I ever had.'" The line, "She loved me so long, and she loved me so hard" were apparently considered too risqué and was changed to, "She kissed me so long, and she kissed me so hard" as well. It was all stupid, I thought."

66. *Animals / The House of the Rising Sun/1964/ 12 times, Top 77 Peak #38

Eric Burdon: "I will probably be singing this song as they lower me into my grave. I stand by it today as one of the best songs I've ever heard and, no matter how much I fight it, I still always enjoy singing it for people. When I visited the alleged House of the Rising Sun, there were 12 nuns there, in their habits, and they asked me to sing the song, which I did, a cappella. After that, they said they would pray for my mortal soul — an experience I'll never forget."

67. *Percy Faith Orchestra / Theme from "A Summer Place"/1960/ 6 times, Top 77 Peak #42

Percy Faith: "I was a little disappointed at first. We recorded it in New York and it did nothing (on the charts) the first two or three, four, five...or six weeks. And then the movie got into the suburbs and it got to the young people and this was their story... every time they'd hear the song, they'd cry."

68. Journey / Don't Stop Believin'/1981/ 1 time, Top 77 Peak #68

Steve Perry, lead singer: "The Sopranos wanted 'Don't Stop Believin'" for the last sequence of the whole series - but I said, 'I won't approve it until I know how it's used.' I was still holding out on Thursday and it aired on the Sunday. Finally, they called and said, 'OK, we'll tell you the ending under one condition...that you can't tell anybody else.'"

69. Critters / Mr. Dieingly Sad/1966/ 7 times, Top 77 Peak #23

Don Ciccone, writer and lead singer: "The song was inspired by a real relationship, but it was not a love gone bad. My girl and I were in love, but the Vietnam War was raging and I knew that I'd get pulled into it."

70. Crystals / Then He Kissed Me/1963/ 2 times, Top 77 Peak #62

La La Brooks, lead singer: "On 'Then He Kissed Me', Phil Spector said, 'Think of somebody kissing you.' I was a kid, so I'm not going to think like that. So he would turn off the lights, I would have a little light on my music, on my words, and then he said, "Now, concentrate." And I sang, 'Well, he walked up to me and he asked me if I wanted to dance.' He said, 'That's the way you do it!' So I guess he had to train my mind to think that I was talking about a boy.”

71. *Shirelles / Will You Love Me Tomorrow/1961/ 17 times, Top 77 Peak #21

Carole King, the song’s co-writer with Gerry Goffin: “We were proud of our breakthrough hit and had our New Jersey home’s doorbell pretentiously and expensively modified to play it. But the ring was out of rhythm, with all the notes incorrectly timed as quarter notes: do do mi mi re re re do.”

72. *Four Seasons / Sherry/1962/ 17 times, Top 77 Peak #21

Frankie Valli: “With ‘Sherry’, we were looking for a sound. We wanted to make the kind of mark that, if the radio was playing one of our songs, you knew who it was immediately. But I didn’t want to sing like that my whole life.”

73. *Beatles / Penny Lane/1967/ 9 times, Top 77 Peak #37

John Lennon: “Penny Lane is not only a street but it’s a district... a suburban district where, until age four, I lived with my mother and father. So I was the only Beatle that lived in Penny Lane.”

74. Grass Roots / Midnight Confessions/1968/ 18 times, Top 77 Peak #33

Rob Grill, lead singer: “We had an awful lot of hits that were very pop-oriented...I never liked any kind of Bubblegum. We’ve always enjoyed making hits...at one time (on the charts) for 307 (straight) weeks. As one was coming down the charts, we’d release another one that would go up the charts. It was quite a ride.”

75. John Lennon / Imagine/1971/ 24 times, Top 77 Peak #6

John Lennon: “A lot of it — the lyric and the concept — came from Yoko, but those days I was a bit more selfish, a bit more macho.”

76. Rolling Stones / Jumpin' Jack Flash/1968/ 5 times, Top 77 Peak #23

Mick Jagger: “I can do ‘Jumpin’ Jack Flash’ in the bath at midnight, on my head. I don’t need to rehearse to do that, I really don’t.”

77. *Fifth Dimension / Wedding Bell Blues/1969/ 7 times, Top 77 Peak #18

Alan Merrill, co-writer of “I Love Rock and Roll”: “I was the son of Jazz singer Helen Merrill and knew Laura (Nyro), the song’s writer. Around 1958 or so my mom was dating a married man named Bill Carter, a B-film actor, and were having a very passionate and public relationship. This was big family gossip of course, and Laura listened to it as a child and later wrote about it. My mother could never marry Bill, and didn’t. Her timing was bad.”

THANKS AGAIN TO GREGG TERRESON FOR HIS FABULOUS WORK IN COMPILING THIS FASCINATING TOP 77 BREAKOUT!

*So, it's been 25 years of the Top 77, as you voted for it!
A project that started out with me tabulating votes on index cards has now grown to incredible proportions thanks to YOU! Your response and enthusiasm is what keeps everyone going who's involved in this massive project.*

Once again, I must thank Frank Thomas for his help as technical director as he makes the tech side of this better and better every year. He's a key part of this project as it becomes more and more interesting and compelling every year! "Invaluable" is the only word I can think of in describing Frank's help.

Thanks to Allan Sniffen for his support of this project and for making the Top 77 come alive every year on Rewound Radio.

And a special thanks to all who helped The Top 77 grow and develop over the past 25 years.

Tom Natoli for the hours of behind-the-scenes work in compiling, strategizing, downloading song titles and more.

*Craig Harris and Chad Olszyk for their technical assistance in the early years of the Top 77.
John Troll for his past help on the technical end.*

Bob Radil and Ron Kovacs for their on-the-air support broadcasting the Top 77 in the past.

And to Bob Shannon, Bill Danning, Ronnie Allan, Chris at his Classic Oldies site, Pat St. John and all the others who helped promote this project on their websites and elsewhere.

And remember to join the fun at OldiesBoard.com. for lots of discussions on the music we love!

Check out New York radio music surveys and all of the previous Top 77's!

Be sure to spread the word about the Top 77 and OldiesBoard.com and of course REWOUND Radio. We all look forward to your participation again next year in the voting.

MIKE RICCIO

OldiesBoard.com Moderator

And Top 77 founder.

The response, excitement and enthusiasm you show is what keeps ALL of us going...And the comments below that came in from just SOME of the voters this year say it all! Enjoy reading the reason..."why" below! From funny to insightful to heartfelt...

To all of you who took the time to give us your thoughts on the Top 77...Thank you!
Here's some of what YOU had to say!

Thank you for the DJ Hall of Fame programs. Especially when it's Dan Ingram and 77 WABC New York DJ's

Hi Mike. Thank you for doing this again. Love the oldies message board.

Rock on!

I'm really excited for this years top 77.

I mean, these songs are all so great, I could have easily done 50 and not known how to rank them. I hope you rank them all equally, maybe even go for 20 next time. Thanks.

Thanks for all you do to keep the top 77 going and to Alan and the gang for the nyrm and rewind radio. what you all do really makes our lives a little nicer. - - - can we vote for our top 20 next year?!?!

Looking forward to the results!

Keep it up!

Love this list! So fun! Thank you!

From "Big Jay Sorensen" "I wish this was a Top 20 favorites listing. I have too many go-to tunes for just 10. Entering my eighth decade next year, I'm still a "Record Pig" with a vast collection, making it even harder to pick just 10. But my list floats from year-to-year, with only a few changes each time we get to vote. These 10 are the ones that jumped out of my brain this time. Be B!G Jay.

Been with you since the beginning.

Thanks for another great year of choosing the Top 77. I always look forward to this and really enjoy hearing the results! Thanks again!!!!

Thanks once again, you guys, I'll be listening often that week. Love the live shows with the amazingly wide range of numbers.

Thanks for all your hard work each year in putting this all together!

Love Rewound Radio. Love the Music. Love the Jingle. Love the specials Thanks heaps Thanks Mike, Allan, Norman, and team for another hugely entertaining event! It's a tradition at our home.

Every year my musical taste shifts slightly, some songs drop off, others appear, this year Billy Joel grabbed me as the full impact of his work is realized. Peace, out.

Always plenty of fun doing this. Great interface. Tried to rotate in a few new ones. Remains pleasantly impossible to come up with just ten choices. Keep up the great work!

Thanking you and the oldies message board for putting this together year after year.

These songs are part of my soundtrack during my younger years living in a waterfront community on Long Island's North Shore.

Always enjoy seeing the changes in this list from year to year.

I can't believe it is that time of year already and I'm not wasting any time getting my votes in. This is a real treat for me, and I appreciate all the work that goes into putting this together.

Love the station!

Great job keeping this tradition alive Mike! I'm a part time DJ with WBLQ in Westerly, RI on a Saturday show called "The Time Machine" and I play these songs regularly.

Can't wait for the countdown!!!!

Thanks for doing this. It's a ton of work!

Always anticipate the results, of a very unique listeners countdown. Mike Riccio should be applauded for the time he puts into this every year. Thank you.

Thank you so much for organizing this! Your hard work, effort and enthusiasm are so greatly appreciated! Wishing you and your family Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year 2023!

Looking forward to listening to the countdown as always! Thanks for this great yearly tradition!

Mike, I wish to thank you in advance for all the calculating tabulating.

Great Christmas present!

Looking forward to listening to you during the Holidays!!??

Looking forward to hearing my ten most requested songs on the top 77 of all time thank you Allan.

Makes me feel like I'm listening to WABC the week between Christmas and New Year.

Always enjoy it, thanks once again

Thanks for conducting your annual survey.

Thank you all so much for doing the Top 77 (which is really top 2000+) each end of the year, and for all else you do on Rewound Radio with all the great jingles, live shows, and requests, commentaries, etc! It is the closest thing to listening to WABC as a kid when I grew up in the New York area, but today!!

Songs from throughout my life that aren't heard much anymore.

During my short time in radio (the highlight being a weekend and fill-in jock on WACKY 102 FM in Springfield, Mass in 1980) nothing made me happier than playing my all time favorite power pop hit (Go All the Way by the Raspberries) after the station's rockin' Top-of-the-hour shotgun shout-out. I can still feel the energy 42 years later!! Allan (and team) thanks for keeping the power in pop!!

We look ahead to the day after Christmas every year. Thank You for your efforts to play these songs.

The data base is very impressive. So much work put into pulling this off flawlessly. Not enough "Thank You" for all that you and this team does. I just noticed the NYRMB will be 25 years old on March 22, 2023. HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!!! Thank you!

Thank you again for running the ONLY modern chart worth bothering with.

Mike -- Thanks for doing this again!

Thanks again really enjoy this each year. Noticed 4 of my 10 were from 1972!

Keep up the good work.

Mike, thanks for all you do in keeping this music alive. it is greatly appreciated.

Thanks guys for all that you do for this!

Thanks for bringing us this music and the best DJs ever!

Thank you Mike for keeping the holiday tradition alive. Have a wonderful holiday season!

Great tradition. Love listening at work to WABC rewind, brings back so many memories as a kid. Thanks again

thank you, very fun

I look forward to this every year! Thanks so much for your hard work compiling the list every year!

Twenty-five years, and the hits just keep on comin'. :-)

Keep up the good work.

Thank you so much for putting the list together. Thanks For keeping the greatest radio station in history alive!
gailcfc@gmail.com

Great job Michael! This has inspired me to relax and enjoy some music!!

I enjoy this every year you hear most everything you can think of.

Love this, thanks so much !

Ten(10)picks are not enough! If it wasn't for the great Rewound Radio, many of these great hit songs would be forgotten. Thank you Mike and Allan.

Thank you for all of the work you do. I would like to have a copy of the list please. Have a great holiday season.

Happy 25th Anniversary! Thank you so much for doing this every year.

It is great that this tradition has continued for a quarter century. That is five years longer than the original WABC countdowns. Thank you.

Again Mike, thank you for the time and effort in putting this all together! Brings back fond memories of Dan Ingram and the WABC all Americans growing up in northern NJ in the 60s.

1964 was a big year for me.

Looking forward to the countdown. It's a great way to cap off the year. My picks vary slightly from year to year. It makes sense since I grew up in the Golden Age of top 40 and have many years of classics to choose from. One hit wonders are always present, and I have favorite bands but none of them ever make my top 10, which I find kind of interesting.

A big Thank You to Mike, Allan, and anyone else involved in this. I look forward to this every year. THANK YOU!

Always interesting to see what songs everyone likes. Love the commentary and chart history too.

60's music is THE BEST! Thanks to everyone in compiling this massive list.

Can't wait to see the results!

Thank you Allan as always for Rewound and Mr Riccio for the countdown

Top 40 in the 60's ruled

Can't wait to see the list! Happy Holidays!!!

Grew up in Queens (Sunnyside) we listened all day and night sometimes. A great station, listened to WABC from 1961 - to 1968 when I left to go into the USAF. My Dad would listen to Cousin Bruce at night with me when I worked for him at a Texaco station in Jamaica. Thanks for the memories

Thank you. I always enjoy revisiting some of my favorite songs.

Thanks for doing this!

You all do an awesome job in making this happen. It brings back the spirit of the Top Hits I listened to on WABC. Thank you so much for your hard work.

Thanks for keeping up the great sites. I was glued to my transistor radio growing up in Hicksville, Long Island. A radio I won in a WABC contest!

Congratulations on continuing this fun idea for 25 years.

Love the radio station. Thank You

Still difficult to choose only 10!

Thanks for another great year Allan and Mike!

Thank you for doing this every year. I know its a lot of work for you but so much fun for the rest of us.

Hope you throw-in some of the Christmas songs that may have been overlooked.

Please, please, no Hey Jude!!!

It's hard to pin this down to just 10. I tried to make them the most important, pivotal, but personal preference will always color the selection.

Always look forward to this great survey. It is so much fun, but requires a lot of work and for this I thank you.

My songs may not be in anybody top ten as I like to go outside the box and list the songs that I remember growing up hearing and or hadn't heard in a long time or had forgotten

11/13/2022 Thank you for doing this every year! Listening to the list is one of our holiday traditions! Mike Riccio---please note that I would like the LONG version of all the songs I have chosen! Hahaha

Thank you for doing this. Happy Holidays

Always fun to fill this out each year.

Thank you for continuing this wonderful tradition, Mike and Allan. So hard to imagine that this countdown has been in full swing for 25 years. I am fairly certain I have voted every year since 1998. Always look forward to listening after Christmas.

Thanks as always for doing this!

Stuck in the 60's with Motown and Ross. Will be listening over the holidays from Rainbow Bay, Gold Coast in Queensland on east coast Australia. Have followed the top 77 for over 20 years. Cheers from down under MacArthurPark, I love it and always wonder why I do. Love Grows is just a catchy little ditty that I turn the volume up on whenever it plays!

I love rewind thanks allan

It would be great if you could share stats on how many people total voted, and how many votes it took to get into the Top 77 (e.g) THANKS--wish we could vote for more than 10 Maybe switch to top 20? :)

Thank you for your hard work! Have a blessed Christmas season !

Great work Mike!

10/24/2022 Thank you for all the hard work you and Allan do to get the Top 77 countdown ready for us.

I migrated (from Brazil) to Newark, NJ. in October 1971, and fell in love with American radio in general and with WABC in particular soon after...I lived on top of a go-go bar on Wilson Avenue and usually fell asleep hearing those songs coming from the juke-box on the first floor... They became the sound-track of my life...

11/04/2022I can't believe it's 25 years! Looking forward to the Countdown as always!

Wish I could vote for 100. Keep up the great work.

My favorite disc jockey of all time was Dan Ingram

Thanks for the reminder, I don't believe I have missed a year of voting yet. Hard to choose just 10. Huge ONJ fan so she got my top vote this year.

Thank you very much for putting this together!

Thanks for doing this again, Mike! And congratulations on being on your way to the 25th edition. I know it hasn't always (or possibly ever) been easy. As always, I'll be listening if at all possible (which it almost always is). Wishing you all the best, and Happy Holidays to you and your loved ones.

As a daily listener to REWOUND RADIO, I just want to say THANKS to Allen, Jon and all involved in keeping REWOUND RADIO on the air and playing my all time favorite music AND Jingles from the 50's, 60's and 70's.

Looking forward to replacing the fading 79 pages of survey wallpaper from last year on my hallway walls. I feel like a kid in an arithmetic class adding and subtracting songs from my final list. I'm making a list and checking it twice like Santa, but Mike, Frank, Jon and Allan are the real gift givers. Listening to Rewound Radio the week after Christmas is listening to the absolute best week all year on ANY radio. Thank you gentlemen for all your hard work and great presentations – visually and aurally.

Thanks for all your work!

Thank you for all you do.

Looking forward to another great countdown show! Loved listening the following shows last year with all songs which got votes, hope to hear that again this year.

Looking forward to this year's Top 77 songs! Would love to see anything but Hey Jude voted #1. Thanks for doing this every year!

Thanks in advance for all your hard work! It makes for such great fun! I look forward to hearing you live on the mic with some of your great commentary!

I always enjoy the 77, its fabulous.

Every year since she passed, I've been voting in sweet memory of my dear gone-too-soon friend, Alexis from Mountain View, CA who LOVED LOVED LOVED Ms. Diana Ross. So, RIP Alexis. I KNOW you are still singing and dancing in Heaven. Thanking y'all for the fabulous music we hear here on Earth, Mike Riccio and company.

Thank you Allan for Rewound Radio

Awaiting the 2022 Countdown...and may the #1 Top-77 Survey song be DIFFERENT this year!

Keep up the excellent work. I look forward to this every year. And thanks to all of you for putting in all the time & effort to do this.

Thanks Mike for all you do!

Always look forward to this time of year!

Thanks for this great opportunity to vote for the Top 77

Awesome job for a quarter of a century!

Thanks, Allan for all you do!

Thank you -- I look forward to this countdown each year. The best!

As I've said many times before, thank you for doing this. WABC was a big part of my childhood. I could pick it up at night in eastern PA and I'd listen to it on my transistor radio which was under my pillow so that my parents didn't know about it. Great memories!

1Thank you for this!!!!

Love your work Alan. Keep the hits coming!

Keep rockin' and rollin'.

These Songs Are more than songs... they are memories and memories yet to be made. In honor of my parents and grandchildren. And that star I'll always wish upon And here's to fascination that turned to love.

I hope "Bridge Over Troubled Water" beats out the Beatles "HEY JUDE".

Can't Wait!

This is always such fun and allows us all to really look at which songs were key in our lives as well as why.
Thanks Mike

So looking forward to this!!

I have voted each year and hope to do so for another 25 years!

Changed it a little it depends what I am in the mood for lately. I met a person recently that has 18,000 records almost 3 times what I have !

Always a pleasure to participate. Can't believe it's been 25 years!

It is so hard to pick only 10 from among 100s of songs I have heard in my 71 years.

There've been so many great songs over the years that it's by-near impossible to single out 10 songs for this list. That said, I've selected 10 songs that I think are great, but may not be on most peoples' Top 10 list.

Let's have a different #1 this year. Hey Jude is getting a little old. Thanks

Thanks for doing this!

Love this every year!!

Love doing this! Thanks Mike! Especially like getting the final results!

Thank you!

Thank you for all the hard work!

Again, thank you for compiling the data! I look forward in reviewing the ranking and the recaps that you put together.

Thanks as always! Enjoy the holiday season!!!

love this every year. Hope to see at least my #1 song in the Top 77. Thanks for everyone's efforts here and also for the E-book copy!

Please send me a copy of the results. thanks.

Thanks for compiling the survey.

Thanks for the Ranks!

Have a Happy 25th Anniversary. I am honored to be a part of this annual tradition, especially in a landmark year.

Alan is awesome. Wish he was on more often....

Can't wait! Thank you!

Thank you for all your efforts in making this survey possible once again! Wishing a happy, healthy and peaceful New Year to all!

Keep it up guys! Happy 25th Anniversary, Mike! Love this annual tradition.

Thank you for doing this; I have enjoyed each of the first 24 years

Keep up the good work. Happy Holidays, Mike! Thanks again for putting this together.

I'll be listening ALL WEEK to everybody's picked songs on Rewound Radio

Thank you for all your hard work!

Thanks as always for bringing back the year-end voting of our favorite songs to us oldies fans. Please keep up the good work for all that you do.

Best of luck to all the songs...

I just picked songs that I could hear over and over again without getting bored. Hopefully a few of them will make the Top 77 this year.

"Rewound Radio" is always the REAL Top of the Pops when it comes to the annual Top 77 Songs of All Time!

Thank you!

Yes indeed...and thank YOU for helping to make this happen!
